

Innovation

The introduction of something new – a new idea, method, or device. Any artifice that generates a new pattern of use, behavior, or thinking that is different from previous patterns in the same field.