

Outcome Measure

Measures to determine the outcome of an objective that indicate company performance at the end of a period. These are results-oriented and do not reflect a process. Examples include: Year-end Sales, Cycle Time, and Market Share. Outcome measures often appear in the BSC's outcome-oriented Financial and Customer perspectives.