

Performance Driver

Measures that indicate progress against a process or behavior. These measures are helpful in predicting the future outcome of an objective.

Examples include:

- Hours Spent with Customers
- # of Meetings with Cross-Functional Representation
- # of Process Reworks, etc.

Performance Drivers often appear in the BSC's process-oriented Internal and Learning & Growth perspectives.